REAPPOINTMENTS OF JUDGES PASSED

House Passes Bill to Make Open Season for Trout Uniform Throughout
State.

(Special from United Press.) Hartford, March 30.—Considerable time was taken up in both Houses of the Legislature to-day over the appointment of judges to the Supreme and Superior and other courts. The House passed the appointment of Justice Samuel O. Prentice to the Supreme court; Judges Milton A. Shumway and William S. C. Foster to the Superior court; and Judge John C. Cowell to the Common Pleas court of Hartford County.
The appointments of Judge Prentice to the Supreme court, Judge Cowell to the Superior court, and Judge George H. Cowell to the district court of Waterbury were transmitted to the Senate under a suspension of the rules. The appointments of Judge Prentice to the Supreme court, Judge Cowell to the Superior court, and Judge George H. Cowell to the district court of Waterbury were sent to the Senate. The appointments of Patrick J. McMahon to succeed Judge Burpee for the unexpired term was referred to the judicial committee. The Senate also passed the appointment of A.
McClellan Matthews to be judge and Richard T. Ryan to be deputy judge of the New Haven City court.

The House passed a bill making the open season for trout uniform all over the state. The bill was introduced by Mr. Doughtal of Washington providing megaphones for members who are unable to make themselves heard. The resolution was tabled.

Under a suspension of the rules the House passed a law making the open season for trout uniform all over the state and a bill making the open season for trout uniform all over the state.
Under the present law the open season in Litchfield County does not begin until April 15.

Among the measures passed by the House were the following: An act relating to the jurisdiction of the town board of education and placing it under the control of a committee of the board of education. The bill was introduced by

The Harmony of Home

Does Not Mingle With or Emanate from the Table of Dyspepsia

In the home, meal time should awaken in all the inhabitants a peculiar harmony of joy which will make the home a shining place of interest and happiness.

If one member at the dinner table is out of sorts, his influence is felt and the harmony is lacking. Conversation and mirth are absent. Devouring thoughts assail the diners and silence prevails.

At the Dyspeptics Table Ominous Quiet and Gloom Crowd Out Mirth.
All physicians agree that mirth and joy at meal time does much toward digestion. Mirth tangles the whole nervous organism. In the cells wherein are stored valuable digestive juices, empty their contents under the nervous stimulation and promote the highest degree of digestion.

If gloom and discomfort prevail at table the reverse action obtains and meals become necessities, not anticipated joys.

Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets are little storehouses of digestion which mix with the stomach juices, digest food, retine the mucus membrane and its nerve centers, give to the blood a great wealth of digestive fluids, promote digestion and stays by the stomach until all its duties are complete.

If dyspepsia sits at tables it makes the dining room a place of awe; these tablets should be taken after meals and dyspepsia of a consequence flees.
No need for diet or fasting. The dyspeptics who will use them religiously will find no sense of nausea in the sight of generous meals or in the odor of rich cooking.

It matters not what the condition of the stomach Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets only improve the juices and bring quiet to the whole digestive canal. It is the stomach which is the center.
Forty thousand physicians use these tablets in their practice and every druggist sells them. Price 50c. Send us your name and address and we will send you a trial package by mail free of charge. Write to: J. A. Stuart, 150
